

The Bombay Bicycle Club

BEAUTIFULLY ESTABLISHED IN 1873

Welcome to The Bombay Bicycle Club.

Cape Town's wonderful love-den at the top of the hill, where anything is possible and always ensues. The menu is a collection of all-time favorites that have delighted our diners for many years, complemented by an ever-changing collection of specialities which embraces our local traders and keeps even the most jaded palates amused.

“be so very careful when trying to fit in with everybody else because accidentally someday you just might stay fully wild, star child ride your watermelon bike wear your purple polka dot pants dream your dripping honeycomb dreams remain always untamed ~ free spirit, don't give up what makes you different

*be the red umbrella
be the horseshoe nebula be the dancing fool be the mismatched socks*

be the walking piece of rainbow shag carpet because you weren't plucked from nothingness to simply fit in you were created to make us gasp seduce us with your strangeness wear your authenticity like lingerie quit pretending to be so khaki while you are dripping in watercolors ~ continue being weird my beautiful weirdo and remember, remember, remember fitting in is for sardines.”
